

More Music

Playing Out

Investigating making music with people who have special needs

Aimed at musicleaders and project managers working with people with special needs ranging from mental health issues to severe and complex disability.

Reflect on your practice, share and gather new ideas

Playing
Out

Themes for the day will include:

- Defining different aspects of special needs
- Integrated projects
- What can music do – art or therapy
- Developing a network

The day will feature:

- Case studies from experienced musicleaders
- Discussions and breakouts
- Experiential music sessions
- Musictech demonstrations

Friday March 12th at More Music, Devonshire Road, Morecambe
9.30am–4.30pm | Cost £50 – includes lunch

Speakers and tutors include:

Diane Sammons Programme Manager for Performing Arts at Beaumont College

Jude Bird Creative Agent at Tor View School

Judi Wright MusicLeader and SEN specialist

Steve Lewis Vocalist working on integrated projects

Chris Bridges Music therapist working at Kingfisher School, Oldham

Darren Poyzer MusicLeader and SEN Specialist

The day will be chaired by Peter Moser – Artistic Director of More Music.

More Music

is a nationally recognised training provider with 15 years experience delivering professional development.

More Music

The training focuses on increasing confidence, sharing ideas, learning from experts, gathering inspiration and refreshing talent.

In 2004 More Music edited and published Community Music: The Handbook, the only dedicated text on community music practice.

MusicLeader is the support service dedicated to the professional development of UK music leaders.

MusicLeader provides 1-2-1 support and guidance, training and networking opportunities and online resources and information.

MusicLeader is a free service. Sign up at www.musicleader.net

For more information or to book your place call 01524 831997
email info@moremusic.org.uk or visit our website www.moremusic.org.uk

More Music | 13-17 Devonshire Road | Morecambe | LA3 1QT

